*Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son,
and his name shall be called Emmanuel.*

Lord, You know that men are flesh and blood; forgive them their sins and pour out Your blessing on all. — St. Haralambos

Christmas Services

Beginning with the Reading of the Royal Hours of Christmas at 9 am on Monday morning, Dec. 24, there are several opportunities to gather together for Christmas worship services. Christmas Eve Divine Liturgy will begin at 6 pm, and Christmas Day liturgy will begin at 9 am.

Let's come together, as one parish family, to praise, adore and worship the sacred birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

Gathering of Prayer

As we close out this year and approach the Nativity season with its focus on gratitude and charitable giving, it's a great time to say both 'thank you' and 'welcome' to our prayer partners.

Thank you to all of our Gathering of Prayer members for your generous gifts of spiritual charity throughout the last year. I have been privileged to receive many thanks directed to you from parishioners for your prayers on behalf of their loved ones. Your prayers provide so much comfort to others!

This year our prayer group resurrected an old Orthodox tradition of the Bright Week cemetery visitation. We went to Sunland Memorial Park to share the joy of the Resurrection with our departed and visit their gravesites. Thank you to all who came out with us!

During our 'giving season' I'd like to invite you to join us by adopting one of the days in our Memorial Akathist prayers for our newly departed parish members. Your "20 Minute Gift" of prayer doesn't cost any money but is extremely valuable to someone who has just fallen asleep in the Lord – and is a great comfort to family. Contact Kay if you have questions about what we do.

May the Lord bless you with peace during the coming year.

The Holy Land

Angie Cholas and Ted Manos will be giving a pictorial presentation of the Holy Land at the coffee hour on Dec. 16. Please join us for this event. We had a lot of spiritually interesting experiences that we want to share with the congregation.

Perryville Prison Crochet Ministry

Thank you to all who are continuing to donate yarn for the Perryville Prison Crochet Ministry! The women depend on our donations to continue their ministry. Our parish has become their sponsor, and they are very grateful for giving them the materials to help put their creative skills and talents to good use.

All donated yarn is delivered to the prison each month. Finished items are donated to Phoenix Children's Hospital and Maggie's House to benefit children and families.

Yarn donations can be dropped off Monday-Friday 10 am to 3 pm, or after Sunday services. The donation box is in the observation area where refreshments are served on Sunday morning.

Calling All Angels!

No, you don't need wings or even a halo. You only need to open up your eyes and your heart, to see and respond with love to those in need. They are here in our community, in every community.

We can pretend they are not here, or that they really aren't in need, or that they should take care of their own needs without the assistance of others. Or we can be angels, love our neighbors as ourselves, move outside of the boxes we too often place around ourselves, open up our eyes and hearts and see that the needs of our neighbors are real.

We have an Angel Tree set up in the Observation Area filled with opportunities to show love to our neighbors. Of course not all needs can be written down and hung on a tree; but some of them are, and in most cases, can easily be met.

St. Haralambos Church is providing food and gifts for 10 Peoria families in need. All items will be picked up by City of Peoria staff on Monday, Dec. 17. It is a program we have been assisting for more than 20 years.

How did we get started?

For those who remember our previous location in Old Town Peoria, we were right across the street from the Peoria Community Center. City of Peoria staff sent a letter asking for help for needy families during the holidays. In those days, once the food and gifts had been wrapped and boxed up, all we had to do was put them on a cart and walk them across the street!

When we moved to our current location, we assured the city staff that we would continue assisting with this program, but they would need to send a truck to pick up our donations. And this is what has been happening each year since.

Be an angel this Christmas for someone you've never met, someone you don't know, someone who can't repay your kindness. It's a wonderful feeling; the feeling we get when God touches our hearts saying, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Stewardship Sunday

Stewardship Sunday is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 9. We will hear from parishioners about what Christian Stewardship means to them. The Parish Council will be hosting a special lunch after services in the Fellowship Room. Everyone is welcome, and there is no cost for this lunch.

The 2019 Stewardship forms were sent via US mail, and extras are available in the church office. Everyone is asked to prayerfully consider your stewardship of St. Haralambos Church for 2019, willingly and cheerfully giving of your time, talents and treasures for the benefit of the Church, and for our continued spiritual growth.

When we recognize that everything we have: health, wealth, time and talents, are all gifts from God, there should be no hesitation in offering those gifts to build up His Church and to glorify His name. To exercise good stewardship is to use God's gifts in ways that glorify Him and build up His Church. This means using our gifts for the benefit of others, giving a portion of our time and treasure for the strengthening of the Church.

When we realize our dependency on God's divine care and blessings, sharing our gifts from Him with others and through His Church is a very natural and joyful response.
