Christ is Risen!

Lord, You know that men are flesh and blood; forgive them their sins and pour out Your blessing on all. — St. Haralambos

Forever Young

By Julie Karoutas

Greetings to All “Forever Young” members, I hope that all is well with you; Robyn Pappas is feeling much better, still has a way to go but well on her way to recovery; In fact, Robyn will be helping me with the Forever Young ministry once she has fully recovered, thank you, Robyn. Alex Anastasiadis is much better, it was so good to see Alex & Kathy at our Mar. 25 Assumption/Greek Independence Day Pot Luck. Keep up the good work! Flo Curran is also recovering from surgery, and is doing well, I am pleased to say. Please keep them in your prayers for a full recovery.

The Phoenix #219 Ahepa will again be hosting their annual “Mother’s Day Brunch” at Holy Trinity following church services on Sunday, May 8, it is a fantastic brunch. What a beautiful way to honor your “Mother”, “Wife or Special Lady” on her special day! This affair is very popular, please make your reservations early.

Russ Skocypec will be hosting another “Day at the Races” Potluck at his home on Saturday, May 14 at 4 pm. Russ has printed up flyers with the details (pages 10-11), please see Russ after services on Palm Sunday. This time, we will definitely play the Race Horse game! Be ready to laugh at some of the names individuals picked for their horses and all. Russ will provide the Italian Beef, we will also need; rolls (for beef), Potato Salad, Cole Slaw, Green salad, Baked beans, Pasta Salad, Appetizers, Beverages: Soda, Wine, etc & desserts. Please call either Russ at 623-546-3553 or me at 623-972-2382.

On Sunday, May 22, at 3 pm, the Arizona Winds Concert Band will perform “Epic Marches”; the concert will be held at the Cactus High School Auditorium at 6330 W. Greenway Rd., Glendale, AZ 85306. If you have not as yet attended one of their concerts you are missing out! Please make an effort to attend, you will be happy that you did. On Sunday, May 15, the same concert will be held at the Sun City Grand Ballroom. If you wish to go to the concert at Sun City Grand you must get “Free Reserved tickets” to attend. You can log on to their web site at: azwinds.com This is a very Patriotic performance that honors our Military Forces, past & present. It fills you with “Pride” to be an “American”.

We are also planning another day at the theater, this time at the Hale Centre Theater in Gilbert, it will be a Saturday afternoon matinee, with lunch first, across the street at famous JOE’s BBQ. Hale is a theater in the round, so to speak, all seating is excellent and the performances are great! More detail to follow. We can car-pool for this outing. This is a fun outing, don’t miss out on it. More details to follow.

Please notify me; I can be reached at: juliekaroutas@gmail.com or 623-972-2382 or call/text my cell, 623-313-8720. Please leave name of all wishing to participate and a contact number. As always, a quick response is greatly appreciated.

Wishing you All a Blessed Pascha; Kali Anastasi!

The Holy Resurrection

“Whosoever is a devout lover of God, let him enjoy this beautiful bright festival; and whosoever is a grateful servant let him joyously enter in the joy of his Lord.”

So begins the Easter Homily of St. John Chrysostom, heard at the end of the Divine Liturgy, typically around 2am. It is a remarkable sermon both for its inspiring content, and its uniquely interactive quality.

The fact that the church walls vibrate with the chorus of “Truly He is Risen!” speaks volumes of St. John’s ability to connect with the deeply held faith of his people even into the early hours of the morning. But, this is how Orthodox Christianity rings in the most awe-inspiring feast of our Lord and Savior’s Resurrection.

His sermon assumes that some people may arrive late, but not that they will leave early! “If any arrived only at the eleventh hour, let him not be afraid by reason of his delay; for the Master is gracious and receives the last, even as the first.” This is a celebration of the entire Church community, and no one should feel unwelcome or turn away because they have gotten a late start

St. John’s sermons, like most other sermons, include biblical references and direct quotes, one of the most powerful coming from the end of St. Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians, “O Death where is your victory; O Hades, where is your sting?” (1Cor.15:55)

He responds to these pointed questions with, “Christ is Risen! (People: Truly He is Risen!) and You (Hades) are annihilated! Christ is Risen! (People: Truly He is Risen!) and the demons have fallen! Christ is Risen! (People: Truly He is Risen!) and the Angels rejoice! Christ is Risen! (People: Truly He is Risen!) and life is liberated! Christ is Risen (People: Truly He is Risen!) and the tomb is emptied of the dead!

In this article, these are just words on a page; in their context at the end of an early morning Divine Liturgy, when everyone has hopefully caught their second wind, they are a collective statement of Christian faith like no other. Again, those arriving late are excused; but leaving early, and missing the opportunity to express with the entire congregation our faith in the Resurrection, is a shame.

May this season of the holy Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ fill our hearts with love, joy and forgiveness.

St. Anna's Philoptochos Society

By Anna Kinniburgh, President

Christ is risen from the dead, by death He has trampled down death, and on those in the tombs He has bestowed life.

Christ Is Risen, Truly He Has Risen! We celebrate Our Lord and Savior's Holy Resurrection and want to extend our sincerest appreciation to all who helped and supported our many parish and Philoptochos endeavors! Many helping hands and happy hearts were involved in making this year's Lenten and Holy Week season an uplifting and inspiring journey! Christos Anesti! Alithos Anesti!

Our society met and voted on our National Ministry commitments for the month which included $25 to the second commitment of the Sisterhood of St.

Basil's Academy. This commitment provides for the physical needs of the children of the Academy and their graduation costs and awards. The Society also voted to send $200 to IOCC (International Orthodox Christian Charities) which provides food, shelter, economic self-sufficiency, and hope to those in need around the world.

Next Meeting

The last Philoptochos meeting of the season will be held Monday, May 23 at 6:30 pm. Please consider joining our legacy of philanthropy and embrace our message of activity and involvement through ministry to others. We wish all of you a safe and joyous summer and may God bless us and our families with His Holy Grace.

Stewardship

Please remember to complete and return your 2016 Stewardship Pledge Card. These are available from the church office or can be picked up in the Narthex on Sunday mornings.

Stewardship is the loving gift of Time, Talents and Treasures for the well-being of our parish and the spiritual growth of each one of us.

Eternal Memory

May God grant eternal rest to the soul of Katherine Katsigiannis who fell asleep in the Lord on Sunday, Apr. 10. Our sincere condolences to her beloved husband, Paul, and their family. May her memory be eternal.

Arizona Orthodox Christians Host Walk in Support of Mission Organizations

Everyone is encouraged to offer their support of the fourth annual "Arizona Walk for Missions" event on Saturday, May 14, at Kiwanis Park in Tempe. Participants can register by submitting a registration form at the event. (see pages 7-8)

Sponsored by the Arizona Council of Eastern Orthodox Church, the Walk for Mission will help support St. Innocent Orphanage with Project Mexico and the Orthodox Christian Missions Center.

Arizona Orthodox Christians Host Walk in Support of Mission Organizations

PHOENIX, March 15, 2016 – The Arizona OCMC and Project Mexico Missions Alumni invite members of the Orthodox Christian community to sign up for their fourth annual “Arizona Walk for Missions” event on Saturday, May 14, 2016 at Kiwanis Park in Tempe. Participants can register by submitting a registration form at the event.

The “Arizona Walk for Missions,” supported by The Arizona Council of Eastern Orthodox Clergy, will equally benefit both Project Mexico and St. Innocent Orphanage and the Orthodox Christian Mission Center. Registration for the event is free, and participants who raise $25 or more will receive a free “Arizona Walk for Missions” T-shirt. Checks are payable to “Project Mexico.”

The 2.5-mile walk starts at 8 a.m., with participant registration starting at 7:30 a.m. Refreshments will be available prior to the walk, and representatives from OCMC and Project Mexico will also share information about their organizations. A prayer will precede the walk at 8 a.m., and a closing prayer will take place at 9:30 a.m.

“Please remember that when you are walking in the Arizona Walk for Missions, you also walk with our newly-baptized brothers and sisters in East Africa,” said Kenneth D. Kidd, an OCMC development officer. “Many of them walk for two or more hours for the opportunity to worship in Liturgy and receive the Eucharist.”

“Every step you take in the Arizona Walk for Missions is a step towards building hope in Mexico,” said Soula De La Riva, a director at Project Mexico and St. Innocent Orphanage. “Hope for abandoned and abused adolescent boys, hope for impoverished and struggling families, and hope for volunteers of all ages who come, serve, and bear witness to what putting their faith into action can truly accomplish.”

All pre-walk and post-walk activities will take place near the parking lot at Kiwanis Park. Parking is available next to the ramadas, just southwest of Mill Avenue and All America Way. The fundraising goal is $2,000, and Orthodox Christians from any jurisdictions are welcome to attend.

About the Orthodox Christian Mission Center

OCMC serves to bring people to Christ and His Church. This ministry includes the preparation and organization of short-term and long-term mission teams and the training and support of indigenous Church leaders. Priority is given to parts of the world that have never heard or accepted the Gospel, thus fulfilling Christ’s great commission to “go and make disciples of all nations.”

About Project Mexico and St. Innocent Orphanage

This Orthodox Christian ministry provides housing for impoverished Mexican families and operates St. Innocent Orphanage, a home for abandoned and abused teenage boys.
