Lord, You know that men are flesh and blood; forgive them their sins and pour out Your blessing on all. — St. Haralambos

We Gather Together

Our family grew up singing the following beautiful Thanksgiving carol, “We Gather Together” each year. If the melody is unfamiliar, search for it on YouTube or as at your local music store. Happy Thanksgiving to All!

We gather together to ask the Lord’s blessing;
He chastens and hastens His will to make known.
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing.
Sing praises to His Name; He forgets not His own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom divine;
So from the beginning the fight we were winning;
Thou, Lord, were at our side, all glory be Thine!

We all do extol Thee, Thou Leader triumphant,
And pray that Thou still our Defender will be.
Let Thy congregation escape tribulation;
Thy Name be ever praised! O Lord, make us free!

Operation Christmas Child

The week of November 12-19, St. Haralambos Church will be serving as the northwest valley drop-off location for Operation Christmas Child. We will be receiving shoe boxes packed with Christmas gifts to be sent to children in various countries throughout the world.

A project sponsored by Samaritan’s Purse, Operation Christmas Child, a Christian philanthropic and evangelism ministry, has been sending Christmas shoe boxes and spreading the Christian gospel for the past 25 years.

Further information can be found at samaritanspurse.org or by contacting Judy Morely after church on Sundays.

Parish Council Ministry

There are many opportunities to serve the Church, one of which is serving on the Parish Council. The Parish Council, together with the Parish Priest, has the authority and sacred responsibility to administer the parish, in accordance with the Archdiocese Uniform Parish Regulations, the parish by-laws, along with the Mission and Vision of St. Haralambos Church.

The Saint Haralambos Parish Council has nine seats, each with a two-year term of office. Council members meet at least once each month to discuss current and future administrative needs of the Church.

Parish Council elections will be held on Sun., Dec. 2 for six (6) open seats. All candidates must be nominated. Nomination forms were emailed last month, and additional nominations will be accepted at the Fall General Assembly, Sun., Nov. 4.

All eligible candidates must attend a Parish Council Seminar led by Fr. Michael on Wed., Nov. 14 at 7 pm.

Perryville Prison Crochet Ministry

Thank you to all who are continuing to donate yarn for the Perryville Prison Crochet Ministry! The women depend on our donations to continue their ministry. Our parish has become their sponsor, and they are very grateful for giving them the materials to help put their creative skills and talents to good use.

All donated yarn is delivered to the prison each month. Finished items are donated to Phoenix Children’s Hospital and Maggie’s House to benefit children and families.

Yarn donations can be dropped off Monday-Friday 10 am to 3 pm, or after Sunday services. The donation box is in the observation area where refreshments are served on Sunday morning.

The Angelic Host: Ministering Spirits Sent by God

Shortly after our daughter, Alexandra, was born, my grandmother, of blessed memory, would often refer to her as “my angel child.” Like any adoring great-grandmother, she used many other terms of endearment, some in Greek, such as “kouklitsa” (little doll), but it seemed like most of them made some reference to an angel.

Many of us have had the pleasure of knowing an “angel” in our lives, someone with the most pleasing of dispositions, selfless and caring, whose outward appearance and manner are commonly described as angelic.

But angels, as we see throughout the Old and New Testament, are much more than the tranquil and serene spirits usually depicted with flowing white robes, feathery white wings, perhaps playing a golden harp and, of course, a halo above the head. In fact, if we look at virtually every icon screen in Orthodox Churches, the icon of the Archangel Michael is not shown carrying a harp, but a sword!

This month, on Nov. 8 the Orthodox Church commemorates the assembly of the angelic host and its leaders, the archangels Michael and Gabriel. The many and varied biblical accounts of angelic activity remind us that angels are, first and foremost, spirits sent from God to do His bidding. They most often have a message of some kind, and routinely, but not always, take human form to deliver their message.

Angels appearing as three men visited Abraham and Sarah and told them they would soon become parents of a son. To help save Lot and his family from the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, angels appeared in the form of travelers and met with Lot in his home. In the Old Testament prophecy of Isaiah, we read of angels, the six-winged cherubim and seraphim, continuously encircling the throne of God.

In the New Testament, angels minister to our Lord Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane shortly before his arrest and trial. It was the archangel Michael who defeated Satan and sent him from heaven, and the archangel Gabriel who was sent to tell the ever-virgin Mary that she would conceive and give birth to a son, the Messiah, by the grace of the Holy Spirit. Shepherds beheld the heavenly host of angels praising God at the birth of Jesus.

And, perhaps our most personal connection with angels takes place at the beginning of the Baptismal Sacrament, during which a prayer asks that a guardian angel be joined to the life of the baptismal candidate.

Those adorable little cherubs we see in books or paintings? Ethereal representations of the heavenly host? Merely man’s attempt - some fanciful and others based on recorded visions - at depicting the spiritual realm; but just a tiny sample of God’s heavenly ministers.

As we commemorate the heavenly host this month, let us remember the many and diverse ways angels have interacted with man, sent by God to reveal his divine will throughout time.

Stewardship

Stewardship statements for the third quarter ending Sep. 30 were sent to all steward families. If you noticed any discrepancy, please call the church office so it can be resolved.

New 2019 Stewardship cards will be available this month. Please prayerfully consider your stewardship of St. Haralambos Church for 2019, in terms of cheerfully giving of your time, talents and treasures.

When we recognize that everything we have: health, wealth, time and talents, are all gifts from God, there should be no hesitation in offering those gifts to build up His Church and to glorify His name. To exercise good stewardship is to use God's gifts in ways that glorify Him and build up His Church. This means using our gifts for the benefit of others, giving a portion of our time and treasure for the strengthening of the Church.

When we realize our dependency on God's divine care and blessings, sharing our gifts from Him with others and through His Church is a very natural and joyful response.

Fall General Assembly

All parishioners are encouraged to attend the Fall General Assembly scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 4, in the Fellowship Room. This is an opportunity to hear and discuss issues affecting the future of our parish. Our Philoptochos will be preparing and serving lunch for everyone. The General Assembly agenda and proposed 2019 parish budget will be sent separately.

Greek Festival

Thanks to all who are participating and getting involved in the Festival Planning. Your ideas, suggestions and continued involvement are essential ingredients to the success of the Festival. Volunteers are still needed in many areas such as pastry preparations, ground preparations, supplies inventory, ice cream, and children's games, just to name a few. A volunteer sign up sheet is included in this newsletter and sign ups will also take place on Sundays during coffee hour.

A reminder for those of you who will be working a food booth, please be sure to obtain a Food Handler card if you have not already done so. Online classes are available at: www.statefoodsafety.com/food-handler

We are continuing to solicit corporate, business and individual sponsors to offset expenses. If you know of a business owner or someone who may like to promote their business or name at our Festival, please share the enclosed sponsor letter and form. Forms are also available at the Church. Cash donations as well as in-kind contributions (i.e.: food, supplies, gift cards, raffle/door prizes, etc.) are welcomed and appreciated.
