Bible Study - Begins Monday, Sept 12, 10am

Lay Aside All Earthly Care

Sound familiar? Yes, it's our invitation each week to leave this world and its cares behind as we ascend to the kingdom in order to celebrate the marriage feast.

This is another invitation to lay aside all earthly care and study God's Word together. Bible study classes will begin Monday, Sep. 12 at 10 am. All are welcome and encouraged to attend whether a seasoned student of scripture or a 'newbie'. Please respond to: Elizabeth Martell, 623-221-2901 or nensemial@gmail .com

More details to come. Watch the Sunday bulletin.

Food for thought - In the Revelation to John, chapter 2, verse 4, the church at Ephesus is charged with leaving their 'first love'. Where do WE stand? Do our hearts "burn within us" as the traveler's response on the road to Emmaus, or can we declare with the Psalmist, "as the deer pants for the water, so my soul longs for You, O God?"

Parish 30th Anniversary

2017 marks the 30th anniversary of Saint Haralambos Church! Events are being planned for a wonderful celebration.

All parish families are invited to be photographed, at no cost, to be included in the 30th anniversary parish directory. Photo sessions will be in early December; sign-ups will be available soon!

Feast of the Holy Cross

“For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.” (1Cor.1:18)

The first major Feastday of the New Church Year is celebrated on the 14th of September, the Exaltation of the Precious and Life-giving Cross. This holy day commemorates the finding of the cross upon which our Lord Jesus Christ was crucified by Saint Helen, mother of Saint Constantine. It was a miraculous journey and discovery, and is worth re-printing here. (source: GOARCH.org)

Saint Helen, the mother of Saint Constantine the Great, when she was already advanced in years, undertook, in her great piety, the hardships of a journey to Jerusalem in search of the cross, about the year 325. A temple to Aphrodite had been raised up by the Emperor Hadrian upon Golgotha, to defile and cover with oblivion the place where the saving Passion had been suffered.

The venerable Helen had the statue of Aphrodite destroyed, and the earth removed, revealing the Tomb of our Lord, and three crosses. Of these, it was believed that one must be that of our Lord, the other two of the thieves crucified with Him; but Saint Helen was at a loss which one might be the Wood of our salvation.

At the inspiration of Saint Macarius, Archbishop of Jerusalem, a lady of Jerusalem, who was already at the point of death from a certain disease, was brought to touch the crosses, and as soon as she came near to the Cross of our Lord, she was made perfectly whole.

Consequently, the precious Cross was lifted on high by Archbishop Macarius of Jerusalem; as he stood on the ambo, and when the people beheld it, they cried out, "Lord have mercy."

It should be noted that after its discovery, a portion of the venerable Cross was taken to Constantinople as a blessing. The rest was left in Jerusalem in the magnificent church built by Saint Helen, until the year 614. At that time, the Persians plundered Palestine and took the Cross to their own country. Later, in the year 628, Emperor Heraclius set out on a military campaign, retrieved the Cross, and after bringing it to Constantinople, himself escorted it back to Jerusalem, where he restored it to its place.

Orthodox churches all over the world commemorate this great feast with a special procession of the cross, decorated with basil, the herb growing above the place where the cross was found. The slow processional Trisagion hymn is chanted together with the other hymns of the feast: "O Lord, save Your people and bless Your inheritance, granting Your rulers to prevail over adversaries; and protecting Your commonwealth by Your Cross."

Orthodox churches all over the world commemorate this great feast with a special procession of the cross

In the Matins service we read the following prayer each Sunday, "You were lifted up upon the cross of your own will, Christ our God. Grant your mercy upon the people that bear your name. In your strength make glad the Orthodox, giving them victory over their adversaries. May they have your alliance as a weapon of peace, and an in-vincible trophy."

We are reminded of the great spiritual battle we all face as followers of the Christian life. Taking up the appropriate weapons gives us spiritual strength – the cross as a "weapon of peace" being a prime example.

Divine Liturgy for the feast of the Holy Cross will be celebrated Wednesday morning, Sep. 14 at 9 am.

Conversational Greek

Those who would like to meet for fellowship and to learn essential conversational Greek are invited to join Irene Nathanson on Sunday Oct. 9 following the coffee hour. Irene will facilitate a very casual group practice lesson for six weeks to focus on the pronunciation of every day basic Greek.

This group is NOT about learning the Greek alphabet or learning to read or write the Greek language, it is NOT about grammar or extensive vocabulary. It IS about practicing key conversational phrases and learning useful every day modern Greek words. There are no textbooks, and the content is based on what participants want to learn or practice. There is no fee, only the desire to continue the usage of a beautiful and historic language. If you plan to attend, please contact Irene at horseyg2@cox.net.

Sunday School

Parents and students are reminded that Sunday School classes will begin on Sunday, Sep. 11. Following Holy Communion, students and teachers will proceed to their classrooms.
